

2019-2020 Reporting Year

Ministry Milestones

A new school year is almost here, and it's time to begin a new reporting cycle!

Thank you for your involvement in the ministry and for helping to track and report this crucial numeric data. This data helps us as we plan for the future of the ministry.

For the 2019-2020 school year, your reports are due on the 10th of every month or on the last business day before the 10th if it falls on a weekend. Please be aware that if you do not turn in your reports, your reimbursements may be withheld.

Please submit your reports to your supervisor, your RFD, and ISIField@isionline.org.

Category Summary

If you are unsure of what each reporting category includes, click the button below to download a summary sheet.

Summary

Reporting Guidelines

Even if you've been reporting for decades, we encourage everyone to review these important reporting guidelines.

Guidelines

Narrative Reports

Individual narrative reports give us a fuller picture of your ministry and how to pray for you. Your narrative reports are due every other month on the 10th, so please make sure to turn in your narrative reports according to your reporting schedule.

If you are unsure of your reporting schedule, email ISIField@isionline.org.

Please use the updated forms below for your reports

Statistics Report

Narrative Report

To find all of these documents and more, visit the Operations Website.
