

2020-2021 Reporting Year

Ministry Milestones

A new school year is almost here. We know that there is uncertainty about the future, what the school year will look like, and even if some students will return. We are praying for each of you as we navigate our new reality together.

Our reporting cycle starts with the new school year, and we thank you so much in advance for your help in reporting this crucial data each month.

For the 2020-2021 school year, your reports are due on the 10th of every month or on the last business day before the 10th if it falls on a weekend.

Please submit your reports to your supervisor, your RFD, and ISIField@isionline.org.

Reporting Guidelines

Even if you've been reporting for decades, we encourage everyone to review these important reporting guidelines.

Narrative Reports

Individual narrative reports give us a fuller picture of your ministry and helps us know how to pray for you. Your narrative reports are due every other month on the 10th, so please make sure to turn in your narrative reports according to your reporting schedule.

If you are unsure of your reporting schedule, email ISIField@isionline.org.
